

STATUTORY DECLARATION OF FREEDOM

I

of (current address)

do solemnly and sincerely declare that apart from my civil marriage

to:

at

on (date of the marriage)

and dissolved by

on

I have never been through any form of marriage either civil or religious, and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835.

Declared by the above mentioned

Signature

at

this..... day of

Before me,

.....

A Commissioner for Oaths

Please note that this Statutory Declaration must be completed in front of a UK Solicitor/Commissioner for Oath. Apart from a signature this Statutory Declaration must have official seal/stamp. If the solicitor does not have such a stamp, then a business card or Law Society note giving the solicitor's details must be attached to this Declaration.